News for the Geothermal Energy Community

The GEA Weekly Update is the Geothermal Energy Association's electronic newsletter, and is our way of bringing you frequent, concise updates in the industry. This is the geothermal power production industry's most widely circulated weekly, and it will keep you up-to-date on the most current industry news.

Each week features:

National News
Company News
Renewable and Climate Change News
State News
International News
Notices and Employment Opportunities
Requests for Proposals
Upcoming Events

If you have press releases, story ideas, calendar events, or job opportunities to submit to the newsletter, please put "News for GEA Weekly Update" in the subject line. Job opportunities will be listed for one month.

To subscribe to our newsletter, please send an email to research@geo-energy.org with "Subscribe to GEA Weekly Update" in the subject line.
